Year 3 Visit to Watergate Bay

The children had a fantastic day starting at Jamie Oliver's Fifteen Restaurant taking part in two workshops. Afterwards they picnicked on the beach and made the most of the great weather.

Richard and Mark wrote:

On Wednesday, Year 3 went on a trip to Fifteen Cornwall at Watergate Bay. We were on the bus for an hour and half. On the bus we all talked to each other. When we got off the bus, we were all very excited. Then we went into our groups. After we had done that, we walked down to the restaurant. We were split into two groups. One group tasted unusual fruit, like jumbo olives, and the other made pasta with the chef. Afterwards, we ate pasta and for most of us it was nice. Then we went to the beach and played in the sand, building sculptures and digging trenches. We went over to a cave and the rock pools. Then we ate our lunch and came back to school. We had a fantastic time!
