To Live, To Love, To Learn

Friday 3rd February 2023

Another busy week at Pensilva is drawing to an end. Yesterday, the choir club took part in a singing workshop in preparation for their performance in SongFest. The children showed great passion and enthusiasm in their practice - they are going to be amazing on stage. They will be performing alongside other primary schools in Launceston Town Hall on 8th March. Thank you to Mrs Noblett for running the choir club and providing the children with an outstanding opportunity to perform on stage.

This afternoon was the latest round of the South East Cornwall cross-country league. Once again we have a strong team attending - good luck to all of the runners. I'm sure they will enjoy the experience and finishing covered in smiles (and mud!). Look out for the results in next week's newsletter. Thank you to Ms Matthews for organizing and to Mr Jones who helps set the pace for the runners.

As always, have a great weekend and I'll look forward to seeing everyone next week.

Class focus of the week— Wrens

In Wrens class we have been doing some amazing learning through play this week. The children love exploring different textures and resources and its a fantastic way to extend their learning and understanding of the world around them. We have just had some new water resources delivered and the children are loving exploring capacity using the jugs, buckets and pourers.

Here are just some of the amazing activities that we have done this week.

PSA news and updates

Monday 20th March—film night. Peter Rabbit 2. £5 per child. Book and pay at school office.

The PSA are kindly asking for donations of Easter egg donations for the children's Easter raffle and any raffle prizes. Please bring into the school office.

There will be an upcoming jumble sale in the village hall (date to be confirmed). This is to raise funds towards new equipment in the front playground. If anybody has any good quality jumble they can donate, please bring into the school office.

Thank you for your continued and ongoing support!
