Friday 7th July 2023

It's seemed a little quiet in school this week because our Year 6 children have been away on residential at Barton Hall. From the pictures I've seen they've had an incredible time. They've done some archery, tackled a high ropes course, abseiled down a tower and made rafts. Luckily, they floated! A huge thank you to Mrs Sissons and Mr Jones for accompanying the children. I'm sure they - and the children - will sleep well tonight!

I hope you all have a great weekend. As a reminder, the Summer Reading challenges launches this weekend at Cornwall libraries. If you have the opportunity over the weekend, why not visit Callington or Liskeard library to sign up for the challenge.

Thank you to everybody who came and supported the summer fair last Friday. Over £300 was raised. This will go towards new resources and equipment in school.

Menu change—Friday 21st July

There will be a menu change on Friday 21st July. The main will be a steak pasty and the vegetarian will be a cheese and onion pasty. These will need to be pre-ordered and this will take place in school. Unfortunately, jacket potatoes and pasta will not be available.
